Presented by Dr. Stephen Russell,
Grant Writers’ Seminars & Workshops, LLC

November 6, 2008  8:30 am - 5:00 pm
LOCATION: Pullman Campus: CUB, Jr Ballroom

This full-day seminar on successful grant writing will address both conceptual and practical aspects. This grant-writing seminar emphasizes idea development, how to write for reviewers, and tips and strategies that have kept the presenter, Stephen Russell, D.V.M., Ph.D., funded continuously for more than 25 years. This presentation is designed to be maximally informative while at the same time, entertaining. Discussion periods, practical exercises, an extensive handout, breaks, and ample time for lunch, also help to ensure that there is maximal gain from the program. This seminar is also a prerequisite for the follow up Proposal-Writing Workshop Series: Write and Submit a Competitive Grant Application.
