Region VI Awards

Helen Carrier Distinguished Service Award

This award was named in memory of Helen Carrier, in recognition of her contributions to research administration in general, and specifically to NCURA.

The following criteria will be used in considering individuals for this award. To be considered for this award, nominees must:

Be a member of Region VI at the time of nomination;

• Have at least ten years of experience in the research administration field; and
• Present evidence of significant continuing and long-term contributions to NCURA specifically, and research administration more broadly. This can be documented through activities such as service as an NCURA officer and/or a Committee Chair in the region and/or at the national level, making research administration-focused presentations within the field, presenting workshops either in conjunction with NCURA or within other professional forums (such as FDP, COGR, invited meetings, etc.), conducting peer reviews, serving as faculty at professional development training, and/or publishing articles on research administration.

Meritorious Contribution Award

The nominee(s) for this award shall have made a meritorious contribution to the NCURA Region VI. Individuals and groups are eligible.

The following criteria will be used in considering individuals and/or groups for this award. To be considered for this award, nominees must:

• Be a current or past member of Region VI. In the case of group efforts, at least one of the nominees must be a Region VI member at the time of the activity (ies) that are being recognized;
• Have made a contribution or contributions to Region VI activities that are especially commendable or praiseworthy. This can be evidenced through special service to NCURA Region VI, through activities such as development and implementation of an innovative program to enhance the conduct of regional activities, programs or business; the creation of research administration tools, or sustained support for regional or national activities, or service to the region.

Self-nominations are encouraged. In all instances, the nomination must include separate letters of endorsement from two current NCURA Region VI members.
Barry Dorfman Outstanding REGION VI Member Award

This award was established in memory of Barry Dorfman. Having made a mid-life career change, Barry was fairly new to the field of research administration and to NCURA, but brought a wealth of prior experience to the organization. This award is intended to honor individuals who, like Barry, quickly became active and valued members of Region VI.

The following criteria will be used in considering individuals for this award. To be considered for this award, nominees must:

- Be a current member of NCURA Region VI,
- Have initially joined NCURA no more than 5 years ago,
- Have demonstrated a quick willingness to offer their abilities, time, energies, creativity, commitment and enthusiasm to NCURA as demonstrated through involvement with NCURA, and
- Have served the Region in at least two different ways, including but not limited to participation on a regional and/or national NCURA Committee (including the Regional Advisory Committee), serving as an officer at the regional or national level, participating in an NCURA meeting or workshop (at either the national or regional level) as a presenter, panelist, organizer, or moderator.

Self nominations are encouraged. The nomination should include endorsements from two Region VI members. One should come from someone at the institution where the nominee is currently employed; the second one should be from someone who is external to the institution where the nominee is currently employed.

Strategic Plan Goals

Goal: Provide high-quality, comprehensive education and professional development programs to the membership.

Goal: Increase regional membership and provide new and existing members with a variety of options to actively connect with the Region in ways that meet their needs and the needs of their institutions.

Goal: Increase the modes and frequency of communications with the membership.

Goal: Ensure sufficient financial resources and infrastructure to meet regional goals and respond to the needs of the region and its membership.

BIG AUDACIOUS GOAL (B.A.G.):

Provide the membership with ten educational and professional development program offerings per year.
